

Our Mission Statement:

The Onion River Exchange fosters the well-being of the community and its members by providing an exchange network of area services and goods that strengthens social capital, encourages reciprocity and is built on a foundation of respect and equality.

